Accidental, self-inflicted gunshot wound

On 11/05/14, at approx. 1030 hrs., the BCSO responded to an incident of an accidental, self-inflicted gunshot wound which occurred in the Brown's Mill area of Boundary County.

The 81 year old victim, identified as John Dunton, from Sagle, Idaho, had been hunting alone when he accidentally shot himself in the lower, left leg with a centerfire rifle. Dunton was located by BCSO Deputies suffering from major blood loss and shock. He was initially treated by members of the Boundary Volunteer Ambulance and then transported to an undisclosed hospital, via airship.

Dunton's current condition, or location, is unknown to BCSO.
