BOUNDARY COUNTY
Emergency Management

Press Release

A recent threat from ISIS online threat regarding U.S. Military and their families does involve North Idaho.

The Boundary County Sheriff's Office has been working with Federal Agencies on the investigation of threats to members of the United States Armed Forces and their families. There has not been a specific threat to any resident of Boundary County. All persons and locations that have been identified in the online media ISIS threat have been contacted and the appropriate safety measures have been taken.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation has released the following statement: "The FBI is working with various Military Law Enforcement agencies on this matter. We take all threats to U.S. Military members seriously and will continue to work in concert with our Federal, State and Local partners to address these online posts".

If you have any questions, comments or information please contact the Boundary County Sheriff's Office at 267-3152.
